

Daily:

just kick it - just chill - ease up a little bit      lounging - lay down - clear my head hanging out - zone out      Swirl and sniff, pair it with get busy      a hater to your own race

Crazy good at      Way out. Way better. Mad high.

Mission Accomplished      My best guess is.

I'll take it back / No take backs      No Fun

I would take a bullet for you!      Slaving that homework.

easy to spot in the crowd.      Getting on each other's nerves.

keep it interesting; switch it up;      I don't switch it up very much.

wait on release days.      you probably lost your appetite

I don't know how this turned on me      No way we are doing that.

drink us under the table then      You think you are so clever don't you bring the devil out of me girl gawd damn

Playing with my money is playing with my emotion.

word on the street is that I'm pretty good

Everything else is frosting on the cake

Dadada honestly contributes to my depression, don't do it to yourself.

Meeting:

-----

I couldn't agree more      I don't have a problem with.

I'm with you there, we worked that out
Put them together real nicely. From different angles
I'm going to make an attempt. This is to the meat of it.
what do you make of it? how would you go about it?
Do you feel good about that answer? Does that clear things up enough?
in large agreement send a clear message to xxx
How do you do that exactly? I'm not too sure what's going on.
On top of that / off of that that said so as to as opposed to
That went right over my head Keep us in the loop
Literally and figuratively Take it with a grain of salt
The proof is in the pudding That's besides the point.
We work way too fast to make it error free
Woo, that's a lot to unpack there, Lemme see
It is easy to be caught up in that situation.
Sorry for kept you on ice for so long
Thank you for giving me too much credit.
According to the YouTube video I watched last night, that sounds correct.
I have a lot of excuses but none of them are any good.
And you spend hours pulling your hair out if you have hair.
If you never have to deal with that, I'm happy for you.
I don't think it was that bad, but it's definitely not my best work

What I did was really just feel like drop in the bucket.

Last week was truly was that for me.

So little bit about today, it's gonna be free flowing discussion,

Not all the panelists are gonna answer all the questions.

I'll direct questions to particular panelist as them come in.

If other panelists feel they have something to contribute someone else's answer please signal me, or just jump in.

Well first, let me just acknowledge my colleagues all cross the nation who has been doing this since day one.

A couple of other things I think is worth mentioning.

To see what it's really like,

It's not accurate but work with me

So with that, we are going to

It's going to be who is authoritative, who is senior, and who is worth listening to

So, we had a little bit of fun there, but it's fun with a purpose.

We momentarily lost Ryan, undoubtedly because the question I asked is too sensitive.

If it comes back to my mind I'll speak, I don't want to slow down the conversation.

And I'll also say as a...

Nice job bringing you audio quickly

How does that tie back to what we had before?

What do you say we start tackling this project?

Emotion:

— — — — —
Bro, I'm at my limit with you.

You can lie to me; but you can't lie to yourself.

Come on now, there is no argument.                      Don't lie to yourself.

I don't know about that.                                      You know that you are

I don't give a fuck about.                                    Just listen what you said.

Yo, you can argue about that, but                      That's not what it is.

You know what I'm saying.                                That's what I'm saying.

Yeah well, we are not talking about.. we are talking about.

You are fucked. You are crazy.                          Well ok, that's alright.

It is, It's not. Hell no, No way.                          It's nonsense

That's bullshit, fuck you.                                  I don't fucking care.

Yeah, whatever    Ok then / But Listen

Thanks for finding humor at my expense.

Use your words please (stop hitting me)

And we'll see how many people take you upon it.

That's not motivating — another your problem

Don't write checks that your ass can't cash

Put your money where your mouth is

If you talk to talk, you have to walk to walk

Well, that's not something I've ever been accused of Interesting choice of words.

Preaching:

-----
We start together we end together

Let's get a win today

take initiative and be proactive

There is no substitute for hard-work

you got challenge yourself

Put it in a positive footing

Guard against these possibilities

Preparation meets opportunity

Can achieve whatever we set our mind to.

It's not the time to take the foot off the pedal.

Stick to the plan, result comes to fruition naturally.

Whatever you have for yourself in that finish line, go get it;

You signed up, show up, let's get its worth;

You came here to work out, that what we are gonna do today;

If you want get better, this is it, right here for you;

we are with you; just like that, easy money

follow your pace, you do what feels good

If you really need a rest, go ahead, and get right back in

It will happen, we sympathize, but it's necessary.

Prepare for the worst Hope for the best

Pros and cons come to both approaches.

Our intuition can sometimes leads us astray.

Communication is fundamental to human nature.

If you want to test a man's character, give him the power.

Don't let your ego connects to your code, it doesn't connects to your capability.

Take other people's advices as how to improve your code.

Describing:

It was a process to get in here                      help me to bring this vision into life.

That one dunk woke everybody up.                      The heck of effort by Spain today.

Had some big buckets                      Working on Anthony, and he got it.

Durant wants it, and you can see why,                      over grown child

He went by James like he wasn't even there.

They have the weapons, they have the tools, and they certainly have the heart and desire.

Cultural difference is not an excuse for misbehaving or being inflexible.

This is been real, I have a poker game to get to, but you guys are invited back whenever. VS but its sadly time for you guys to go.

That's really nice of you, nice has nothing to do with it, It's about the best of our future.

right off (without delay, immediately) the bar is a dark moody powder-room / glam room.

It takes up the whole backyard. once it's dark, it lights pretty well.

this and that go in hand in hand. very cohesive, they hit it off together.

I want it to be inviting, comforting, warm, grounded, collective group.

when someone shocked and muted: the word you are looking for is “anyway”

I’m really glad you came back and proved me wrong.

Transferable skills can be transferred from one life experience to another.

You know what it looks like, but you don’t know what it feels like.

Let me guess: you were potty trained at gunpoint and still piss sitting down on orders from mommy dearest. Your innie peanut dick remains flaccid unless you gaze adoringly at a photo of your lord and savior Trumpeto-Pumpkin’s tits. Your IQ starts with a decimal point and you have yet to grow your opposable thumbs. Wow I’m impressed.

It’s really hard to get good people, You’ve got to roll the red carpet out and go after people and kind of poach them and make them offers they can’t refuse.

Women deeply want a man who is competent and powerful. I don’t mean power that they can exert tyrannical control over others / arbitrarily exercise power on others, that’s corruption. power is competence. Why in the world you wouldn’t want a competent partner?
